

SHERRY ROMATE Amontillado NPU Special Reserva

Country:	Spain
Region:	Andalusie
Appellation:	Sherry
Grapes:	100 % Palomino Fino
Alcohol degree:	18 %
Serve with:	aperitif, grilled meats, aged cheese, nuts
Description:	This sherry is over 30 years old. Dry, smooth, with radiant amber hues. The lasting fragrance is reminiscent of peanuts. It is made from a Fino which later undergoes a second ageing period, but without the yeast layer. The complex ageing results in one of the finest sherries, a superb complement to starters, especially those which are marinated in vinegar.
